Imagine...you love breakdancing... You kept breakdancing in the early 90's when it wasn't cool...you are currently one of best breakdancers in Australia. You have breakdanced at the world championships....what would you do next?

Melbourne Breaks: a dance/theatre show all about breakdancing for the 2006 Fringe festival @ THEATREWORKS

Melbourne Breaks: Catch a glimpse and bounce to the music as you get a taste of what it is like growing up in Melbourne and loving to breakdance.

Get a glimpse into the rise of the dance phenomenon called Breakdance as members of the Wickid Force Crew (the best breakdance Crew in Australia) along with members from other Melbourne Crews explore moments in the lives of Melbourne breakdancers from the 80's 90's and today.

The story: of James, growing up in Melbourne loving to Breakdance; James life starts to fall to pieces when after an injury he stops breakdancing....

We explore what happens to James when he stops doing the thing he loves.

THESE GUYS ARE INTERESTING TO INTERVIEW!!!

"As a b'boy when I dance in the circle, you see all my emotions through my dancing, if I am feeling angry then that's what comes through or if I am happy that's what will be expressed in the circle." Arch AKA Arch Rival

Innovation

- In an age where the statistics show that men are very disconnected from society having an all male creative arts process seems like a good tonic.
- Investigating the history of breakdance in Melbourne not by finding out which American movie was around at the time but by exploring and celebrating the diverse cultural backgrounds of the dancers who have participated in this art form, as a conduit to celebrating local artistic talent and ownership of culture.
